

Assembly in such cases made and provided papers in the year 1814; and at September Term of the said Court, in the year 1816, the said Petition, came on to be heard and the allegations contained ~~in the same~~ therein was found true by a lawful jury empannelled for that purpose;—Whereupon

It was Ordered, sentenced, and decreed ^{by the Court} that your Petitioner, and the said Elizabeth the Defendant, should be Divorced from the Bonds of Matrimony; all which will more fully appear from the transcript accompanying this Petition, and taken from the records of said Court.

Your Petitioner therefore prays that the said sentence and decree be confirmed by an Act of your Honorable body pursuant to the Act of Assembly, on which the above mentioned proceedings were founded. And he as in duty bound will ever pray &c.
